

Vienna Anthropology Days

September 19-22, 2018

Call for Papers  <http://vanda.univie.ac.at/>  Deadline June 1st, 2018

VANDA (Vienna Anthropology Days) is an international conference, to be held in Vienna in fall 2018, which aims to bring together experienced scholars from various fields of anthropology and ethnology, as well as other social sciences and humanities.

VANDA is meant to be more than a mainstream science conference. Its intention is to serve as a place where young researchers and early career scholars find a welcoming environment and can connect in a variety of ways through a wide range of social activities. Moreover, this conference includes an interactive Young Scholars' Forum, where aspiring graduate students can network, receive mentoring and practical advice, and have a chance to meet experienced colleagues and profit from their know-how. Apart from the classic conference formats, researchers have the opportunity to present their papers within innovative sessions.

VANDA is a green conference. It is our concern to mainly provide you with locally and sustainably produced foods and goods. Furthermore, we wish to make this conference as socially inclusive as possible. We therefore provide barrier-free access, childcare provision and further assistance if requested beforehand. Another remarkable feature is HomeStay – an opportunity for those who do not wish to spend too much money on accommodation or want to get in contact with local students.

VANDA will take place in Vienna. The beautiful capital of Austria in the heart of Europe offers a wide range of historic architecture, monuments, parks, traditional coffee houses (Kaffeehäuser), bars (Beisl) and wine restaurants (Heurigen), which can be experienced within our social activity program. Further activities, to name a few, are the fieldwork slam, bike city tours, waltz dance classes, yoga and movie nights. Take a break and use the chance to connect with other participants in a relaxing atmosphere!
